"Am I a Monster?"

You have become a werewolf! But that beastly appearance is not as dangerous as the beast growing inside you. Are you a monster or a human? That is the answer you need to discover.

"Returning of the Quantum Cat"

The most famous game on the INSTEAD engine. You play as a forester, whose cat was abducted. The search leads you to a strange institute. Help save Barsik!

"The Watch"

The starship "Pilgrim" is heading to Gliz 667c. Estimated flight time -- dozens of years. Every member of the crew is taking a 48 hour watch shift, while the others stay in cryosleep. This story tells about the events during one of such shifts.

"Shturman"

This is an educational game, which originally was written by Oleg Shamshura in the 1990's. Master the basics of programming by solving logic tasks based around cargo transportation by means of a spaceship.

in front of the cabin

I scratched Barsik behind the ears...

There's a fireplace by the wall. The flames illuminate the cabin irregularly. There's an oaken table with drawers in the left corner. My cat Barsik ("little snow leopard") is sleeping by the fireplace cosily curled in a ball. The cabin has a single window. There's a bed by the window. On the nail in the pine door there's my quilted jacket.
